

Working with Us ~ Does the Shoe Fit?

Corporate Cinderella has been created to provide a unique, high quality experience for women leaders who are passionate about the work they do, who are committed to redefining the glass ceiling, shaking the status quo, practicing diligence and re-claiming the fairytale.

This 'shoe' will not fit people or organisations

- ❖ who blame leadership, don't take personal responsibility and gossip
- ❖ who are bitter towards men or just plain angry
- ❖ who do not support the role of women in leadership
- ❖ who resent the promotion of women
- ❖ who do not place value on family
- ❖ who confuse femininity with incompetence, or strength with feminism
- ❖ who confuse aggression with strength and see humility as a weakness
- ❖ who are not prepared to invest in professional and personal development
- ❖ who are not prepared to be accountable for their actions and inactions

This 'shoe' will be a great fit for people and organisations

- ❖ who want increased clarity about their role and position
- ❖ who want to inspire, equip & lead with increasing effectiveness
- ❖ who support the aims and objectives of the organisations that employ them
- ❖ who value helping others and contributing to the community as much as (or more than) making money
- ❖ who recognise that completing workflow means re-evaluating priorities in order to leave work on time
- ❖ who want to achieve their goals and increase their capacity to adapt to changing circumstances
- ❖ who love their partner and their children and are prepared to learn how to role model integrity for influence

Additionally:

- ❖ the range of programmes offered through Corporate Cinderella require a reasonable investment. I believe firmly in the value of the content and the outcomes you'll achieve for you and your enterprise.
- ❖ from time to time you'll also be required to travel to the Gold Coast, my home town of 20 years, for events. Golden sands, rolling surf, national parks, walkways and cycle ways. It's a tough gig, right?
- ❖ if participating in our events and online social media you'll be required to be genuine about your strengths and weakness, what's working and what's not, so that together, we can share strategies to build success.
